To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court:

Your orator, who sues as well for himself as all other creditors of Trovilla W. Carlisle, late of the County of Montgomery State of Maryland, deceased, who will come in and contribute to the expenses of this suit, complaining, says:

1. That the said Trovilla W. Carlisle was in his life-time indebted unto your orator, William L. Burdette, in the full and just sum of four hundred and thirty-nine dollars and ninety-six cents ($439.96), as will appear by reference to open account filed herewith as part hereof, marked "Exhibit No. 1."

2. That the said Trovilla W. Carlisle being so indebted as aforesaid unto your orator and unto divers other persons, and having real and personal estate of value, departed this life on or about the 26th day of June, in the year 1944, intestate, leaving surviving him his widow, the defendant, Catherine E. Carlisle and the following children as his heirs at law, namely: Eugene C. Carlisle who intermarried with Helen B. Carlisle, Sophia Linthicum who intermarried with Hamilton Linthicum and Dorothy E. Johnson who intermarried with Edgar L. Johnson; that since the death of the said Trovilla W. Carlisle his son, the said Eugene C. Carlisle,
